

48th New Jersey State Golf Association Senior Amateur Championships Final Results – Tuesday, August 8, 2006 – Arcola Country Club, Paramus

Alton Jones of Mendham today captured the Chuck Smith Championship Trophy as the winner of the 48th New Jersey State Golf Association Senior Amateur Championship at the par-72, 6719 yard Arcola Country Club in Paramus. Jones' two day total of 149 (76-73) was one shot better than defending Champion Larry Hall of Packanack, who finished in second place with 150 (74-76) in the Senior Division (ages 55-64). In the Pre-Senior Division (ages 50-54), Bert Kosup of the Ridge at Back Brook defended his title in winning for the second straight year with his two day total of 147 (75-72). John Huda of Fountain Green and Tom Hyland tied for second place, both shooting 152.

Gerry Barnett of Manasquan River claimed Super-Senior Divisional honors with his 36 hole effort of 151, besting Robert Housen (also of Manasquan River) who shot 156.

Net Division prizes were also awarded in each division; Robert Kirshenbaum of Haworth claimed the low-net title in the Senior Division, while James Patton of Arcola claimed Super-Senior Division low-net and Richard Ross finished low-net in the Pre-Senior Division.

The New Jersey State Golf Association looks forward to the 2007 Championship at Manasquan River in Brielle.
