

New Jersey State Golf Association
108th Amateur Championship – Round 2
Fairmount Country Club – Chatham, NJ – Wednesday, June 3, 2009

Four-time runner-up Michael Deo of High Bridge Hills Golf Club continued his strong play with a second round even-par effort of 72 to claim a share of the lead at 143 with Anthony Campanile of Blue Heron Pines Golf Club at the 108th New Jersey State Golf Association Amateur Championship at the Fairmount Country Club in Chatham. The par-72, 6799 yard layout in Morris County played with more difficulty in today's second round; only one player, Robert Cronheim of Twin Brooks broke par with his spectacular effort of three-under par 69 (33-36). The twenty-year old resident of Watchung and student at Cornell University stands tied in third place with twenty-two year old Brian Leveille of New Jersey National at two-over par (146).

Ten players stand within five strokes of the lead with the 36 hole final rounds scheduled for tomorrow, June 4. The 108th Amateur Champion will be the player with the lowest 72 hole aggregate score and will be awarded the Edwin M. Wild Championship Trophy.

Full scoring and course statistics are available at the NJSGA website: www.njsga.org. Final round hole-by-hole scoring will also be available at the NJSGA website.
