

50th New Jersey State Golf Association
Senior & Pre-Senior Amateur Championships
Crestmont Country Club, West Orange, NJ
First Round Results – Monday, August 4, 2008

Fifty-six year old Allan Small of Fairmount Country Club fired an opening round two-under par 70 (34-36) to take a first round lead at the 50th New Jersey State Golf Association Senior Amateur Championship at the par-72, 6585 yard Crestmont Country Club in West Orange. Small, the 2004 NJSGA Amateur Champion and resident of Florham Park, mixed three birdies with only one bogey in his strong opening round effort. The Senior Championship consists of Amateur golfers fifty-five years of age and older in a 36-hole, stroke play competition.

In the Pre-Senior division (ages 50-54), fifty-three year old Bert Kosup of the Ridge at Back Brook paced the field in shooting a one-under par 71 (36-35) to set the pace after the first eighteen holes of play. Kosup, a Flemington resident and the 2005 and 2006 NJSGA Pre-Senior Champion, will begin play tomorrow as the division leader looking to garner his third Championship.
