

Final Results: Sectional Qualifying Round- 87th NJSGA Open Championship
Sponsored by Lincoln Mercury & Prudential Financial
Navesink Country Club, Middletown, New Jersey – Monday, June 11, 2007

Quad-medalists William Hook of Ridgewood, Bill King of Spring Lake, Ken Pridgen of Liberty National, and Codie Mudd of Metedeconk National each fired a three-under par 69 to lead a total of 23 players into the 87th New Jersey State Golf Association Open Championship at the first of four sectional qualifying rounds today at Navesink Country Club in Middletown, NJ. Professionals Hook (36-33), King (34-35), Pridgen (35-34), and Mudd (35-34) paced the field at the par-72, 6755 yard layout where Derrick Scenna of Deal (37-35) and Kevin O'Connell of Spring Lake (36-36) each carded a share of low-amateur honors with their even par efforts of 72.

The 87th NJSGA Open Championship, sponsored by Lincoln-Mercury and Prudential Financial will be contested at the Plainfield Country Club July 10-12 where defending Champion Jason Lamp of Deal will look to repeat as winner of the C.W. Badenhausen Championship trophy. Three sectional qualifying rounds remain which will determine the remainder of the field for the Championship proper. The second will be held tomorrow, Tuesday, June 12 at Twin Brooks Country Club in Watchung; the third will be held at Rockleigh Golf Course in Rockleigh on Tuesday, June 19, and the final qualifying round will be held at Burlington Country Club in Mount Holly on Thursday, June 21.
