Trump National Golf Club – Colts Neck, New Jersey
FINAL RESULTS

COLTS NECK, NEW JERSEY – Tom DiCinti of Centerton shot an even-par 72 (36-36) to match his opening round total of even-par 72 for a final total of 144 to claim the 52nd New Jersey State Golf Association Senior Amateur Championship at the par 72, 6691 yard Trump National Golf Club in Colts Neck, New Jersey. DiCinti, age 61 of Voorhees, was consistent throughout and held on for a one-stroke victory over Jay Blumenfeld of Mountain Ridge, who finished at one-over par 145. Robert Lodovici of Little Mill claimed low-net honors with his two-round total of 140. The Senior Championship is conducted for golfers age fifty-five and above; the Chuck Smith perpetual championship trophy has been awarded to DiCinti for the ensuing year.

In the Pre-Senior Championship (ages 50-54), Bill Charpek of Navesink bested Jay Antonelli of Pine Barrens on the first hole of a playoff after finishing regulation tied at six-over par 150. Charpek, age fifty-four, carded a par on the par-4 tenth hole which was enough to better Antonelli and garner the William Y. Dear Championship Trophy. John Masterson of Knickerbocker finished low-net in the Pre-Senior Championship at 145.

The Super-Senior flight championship was won by longtime amateur standout Bob Housen of Manasquan River in a match of cards over Jim Byer of Springdale; both players finished at 157. Roy Pera of Rockaway River was the low-net finisher in the Super-Senior flight (for players age sixty-five and above) at 148.

Following is a listing of final results:

(P)= Pre-Senior (age 50-54)

(S)= Senior (age 55 and above)
