

76th New Jersey State Golf Association Four Ball Championship
Sectional Qualifying Round – Trenton Country Club, West Trenton
Monday, July 21, 2008 – Final Results

WEST TRENTON, NEW JERSEY - The Mercer Oaks tandem of Justin VanHyning and Tom Mensel combined to shoot a seven-under par 64 (33-31) to claim medalist honors in the first of two qualifying rounds for the 76th New Jersey State Golf Association Four Ball Championship today at the par-71, 6358 yard Trenton Country Club in West Trenton. The combined effort of VanHyning and Mensel leads a total of 17 teams into the Championship proper which will be held August 11-13 at the Spring Brook Country Club in Morristown.

Today's qualifying round for the Four Ball Championship was a two-man, better ball of two stroke play competition; the Championship itself at Spring Brook will be match play. One additional qualifier remains to be contested, which will be on Wednesday, July 30 at the High Mountain Golf Club in Franklin Lakes. Fourteen additional teams from the High Mountain qualifying round, plus today's seventeen will join Michael Deo and Gregg Angelillo of Montclair who are the defending Champions in the match play field.

Following is a list of the 17 teams which qualified at Trenton:
